Article 3. Violations and Enforcement

Amend Section 8040 of Article 3 of Division 1.8 of Title 22 of the California Code of Regulations as follows:

§ 8040. Interference with Actions of Office.

~~(a) No licensee, employee, agent or other person connected with a long-term care facility shall willfully interfere with any lawful action of the Office. Violations of this Section may be the basis for the assessment of a civil penalty under Section 8045. No person shall:~~

~~(a)(1) Willfully prevent, impede, or interfere with entry into a long-term care facility by duly authorized representatives of the Office in the lawful exercise of their responsibilities.~~

~~(A) Whenever a representative of the Office is seeking entry into a long-term care facility, they shall have on their person clearly visible photographic identification that is issued by the Office.~~

~~(B) Whenever a representative of the Office is seeking entry into a long-term care facility, they shall make available for viewing by representatives of the facility, upon request, a written copy of the laws and regulations that authorize the Office to, in performance of their duties, access the facility, residents and records.~~

~~(C) A person's interference with a representative of the Office, as a result of the representative's failure to satisfy after the representative has satisfied the requirements of sub-paragraphs (A) and (B) when attempting access into a long-term care facility, shall not of this section, shall be deemed willful.~~

~~(b)(2) Willfully prevent or interfere with the interviewing of confidential communications with complainants, patients, residents, or witnesses by representatives of the Office in their investigation and resolution of complaints lawful exercise of their responsibilities.~~

~~(c)(3) Willfully prevent or interfere with access to, and the examination or copying of patients' or residents' medical or personal records requested under Section 9724 of the~~

Welfare and Institutions Code, or other records necessary to carry out the responsibilities of the Office requested under Section 9723 of the Welfare and Institutions Code.

~~(e)(4) Willfully prevent, impede, or interfere in any other way with the lawful work of duly authorized representatives of the Office in the investigation and resolution of complaints.~~

~~(d)(5) Willfully discriminate, discipline, or retaliate against any employee, patient, resident, or volunteer in a long-term care facility for any communication made, or information given, to aid the Office in carrying out its duties and responsibilities. This subdivision does not apply to any communication made, or information given or disclosed, that was done maliciously or without good faith.~~

(b) For purposes of subsections (a)(1), (2), (3), and (4), any interference with the lawful actions of the Office shall be deemed willful if the interference persists after the representative of the Office makes available to such person(s) photographic identification issued by the Office and a written copy of the laws and regulations that authorize the Office access.

(1) This subsection shall not apply when the person interfering with the representative of the Office is acting under the direction of an identified person who is authorized to take or recommend the taking of adverse employment actions against them.

(2) Any representative of the licensee who is authorized to take or recommend adverse employment action against an employee of a long-term care facility and who authorizes that employee to interfere with the lawful actions of the Office shall be deemed to have committed a willful violation under this section.

(c) The representative of the Office whose lawful actions under this section are interfered with shall, no later than twenty-four hours after such interference, submit a report describing the interference to the appropriate licensing agency and to the State Ombudsman.

(d) The representative of the Office whose lawful actions under this section are interfered with may seek the assistance of law enforcement as needed to carry out their responsibilities.

(e) If the State Ombudsman determines that any person or persons are continuing to interfere with the lawful duties of the Office, the State Ombudsman has the discretion to pursue appropriate legal remedies.
