Brochure Tri-Fold Format

Side One – Left to Right panels:

Left Panel:
GET TO KNOW US BEFORE YOU NEED US
ADRC organizations can help you sort through your options.
ADRC organizations work together to give you trusted and reliable information about long term services and supports no matter your age, income, and disability.
ADRC services are free.
(Bottom: Photo of people with ADRC logo)

Center Panel:
CONNECTIONS
The ADRC is a connection of organizations that work together to make access to services and supports easier for older individuals, individuals with disabilities and family caregivers.
To find out more, please contact:
(Bottom: California State Seal, Department of Rehabilitation logo, California Department of Aging logo, and Department of Health Care Services logo)
https://www.aging.ca.gov/ProgramsProviders/ADRC/

Right Panel-Cover
(Top: Photo of two individuals)
(Title) Aging and Disability Resource Connection
(Bottom: ADRC Logo)
Connecting Californians to information and assistance for daily living.

Side Two – Left to Right Panels

Left Panel:
(Top Photo: A glder individuals smiling)
AGING AND DISABILITY RESOURCE CONNECTIONS (ADRC) HELP YOU:
• Get information about services and benefits from a wide array of programs
• Get unbiased information about public programs and privately funded services
• Coordinate health care and social supports
• Get private Options Counseling that focuses on you and your individual goals for independence
• Fill out fewer applications for services and make fewer phone calls
• Speak privately about receiving services.

Center Panel:
WITH ADRC THERE IS NO WRONG DOOR

Arrangements for long term services and supports can include:

• Assistive Devices
• Medi-Cal Eligibility
• Medicare Services
• Disability Benefits Assistance (SSI/SSDI)
• In-Home Care and Supports
• Home Modifications
• Family Caregiver Information
• Local Caregiver Resources
• Personal Care Assistance
• Health and Nutrition
• Transportation
• Veteran’s Services
• Assisted Living
• Housing Resources
• And much more.

ADRC connects older individuals, individuals with disabilities, and caregivers to numerous benefits and services. Let us help you.

Right Panel-Cover
LET ADRC HELP YOU SORT OUT YOUR OPTIONS

Information and Referral in person or online about a wide range of services and resources.

Options Counseling about long-term services and supports for now and in the future.

Short-Term Service Coordination when you have urgent needs and want to avoid a stay in a nursing facility or hospital.

Facility-to-Home Transition Services when you want to move back home and need help arranging for support.

(Bottom: Photo of older individual with family)