Bridge to Recovery Grant Program

May 9, 2023

PCG's Role in the Process

- Public Consulting Group (PCG) is a public sector consulting firm that works with health, education, and human services agencies
- CDA has contracted with PCG to provide Fiscal Intermediary services
 - PCG will help design the overall grant Program, evaluate applications, disburse awarded funds, and manage reporting
 - PCG will also provide technical assistance to applicants throughout the application, award, and payment process

Opening Remarks from California Department of Aging

Details of the Bridge to Recovery Grant

Program Overview

- New $55.84 million grant program administered by the CDA
- Supports in-center congregate services for at-risk older adults and people with disabilities
- Offers one-time funding for providers of day services to address infection prevention and workforce shortages
 - Projects should help providers of in-center congregate services provide a safe, healthy, and person-centered environment for older adults and people with disabilities

Funding Parameters

- Grantees will receive funding on a reimbursement basis
 - Grantees can only be reimbursed for eligible and allowable project costs
- Grantees need to submit the following to receive funds:
 - An approved invoice
 - Supporting documentation to justify the expenses in the invoice (e.g., invoices, receipts, payroll reports, contracts, etc.)
- Grantees can submit invoices throughout the program period according to their project plan and timeline
 - Final invoices must be submitted by May 31, 2026
 - Failure to submit timely invoices could result in the loss of payment(s)

Eligible Activities

- Providers can spend funds on facilities and staffing improvements necessary to provide in-center services
- Funding may be used for a new project or to supplement an existing one
- Applicants may not use grant funding to supplant existing funds received via Medicaid, insurance, other grants, or other funding sources

Facilities Improvements

- Applicants can use grant funds to invest in needed infection prevention measures in their facilities
- This includes, but is not limited to the following projects:

Building ventilation: adding or improving ventilation systems to meet Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) standards

Air flow and filtration: repairing or installing air filters to meet Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC) standards

Modifying usable space: repurposing outdoor areas to expand safe, useable program space or modifying indoor spaces to promote health and safety while encouraging participant engagement

Sanitation and infection control: increasing sanitation and infection control measures

Vehicle modifications and/or preservation: modifying existing vehicles used to transport participants and/or installing surveillance equipment

Telehealth: improving participant access to telehealth services

Staffing Enhancements

- Applicants can use grant funds to stabilize their workforce and comply with mandated staffing ratios
- That includes, but is not limited to the following projects:

Staff recruitment and retention: costs associated with posting jobs and sign-on or retention bonuses

Temporary workers: salaries for temporary workers when there is a vacancy or absence in key required positions, such as nurses, social workers, therapists, or transportation drivers, in order to comply with regulations and staffing ratios

Wage differentials: providing raises for direct support staff to ensure equity among similar roles and skillsets. Final wages from salary increases should comport with or be comparable to local labor laws, standards, and prevailing wages.

Staff training: providing training in infection prevention and control, health, and safety.

Starting Your Letter of Intent

- After verifying your email, you can start your Letter of Intent
- Clicking the "Start new application" button on the bottom right

The screenshot shows the California Department of Aging (CDA) Letter of Intent application page. At the top left is the CDA logo. To its right, the title "California CDA Letter of Intent" is displayed, followed by the deadline "Accepting applications until May 15, 2023 5:00 PM MST". Below this, a paragraph of text describes the grant: "Thank you for your interest in applying for a Bridge to Recovery for Adult Day Services: COVID-19 Mitigation and Resilience (Bridge to Recovery) grant, authorized through funding appropriated to the California Department of Aging (CDA). The State of California is investing funds to ensure licensed Adult Day Health Care (ADHC) centers, Adult Day Programs (ADP), and Program of All-Inclusive Care for the Elderly (PACE) sites combat senior isolation and improve the health, safety, and well-being of vulnerable at-risk older adults and people with disabilities through safe access to in-center congregate services." At the bottom, there are two buttons: "View all my applications" and "Start new application". A large black arrow points down to the "View all my applications" button, and a red dashed box highlights the "Start new application" button.
